Charlie Wright

Practically every manager approaches every new season with a feeling of optimism and as I welcome you all back to Burnden Park for a new campaign I can tell you that I am no exception.

There have been many changes on the playing side here at Bolton Wanderers during the close-season and on the strength of the new players I have brought into the club I would hope with some confidence that by the end of the season we'll have a lot of good things to look back on.

I, for one, am starting the season with a positive attitude and I hope that you, the fans, will take the same approach.

I thought you were magnificent last season and I'd like to think we can attract many more of you in the coming weeks and months.

What I would ask is that you help us improve the whole image of football, which has taken too many knocks in the recent past. We have got to stamp out hooliganism because that problem is threatening the very future of our game.

As I say, we need a positive attitude right from the start because I believe this season is probably the most crucial in the long history of football.

Hopefully we can improve soccer's image together and at the same time improve the fortunes of Bolton Wanderers.

We have been fortunate this summer to complete the signing of former Scottish international Asa Hartford. I'm looking forward to Asa being a big influence in midfield this season as well as being a help to our younger players.

The three new players I have signed at the back, Derek Scott, Sam Allardyce and our new skipper Dave Sutton are all vastly experienced players who, with their knowledge of the game, should help us develop a better understanding in defence.

The signing of David Cross should put pressure on last season's top scorers Tony Caldwell and George Oghani. Competition for places is always a healthy situation at any club and I'm sure that Tony and George, apart from anything else, will benefit from the skills and experience of a player who has scored goals at the very highest level.

With five new players having to settle into a club, we might need a touch of patience. But the efforts of the summer have all been directed towards improving the standard of play.

Today, as we welcome our visitors from Rotherham, a brand new season brings fresh hopes and aspirations. Let's all hope that when we reach May 1986 that football and Bolton Wanderers can look back on the season with satisfaction.

If Charlie Wright's signature appears in the box below you too can share in the Burnden Park Birthday celebrations by winning a pair of season tickets for life. Are you the lucky winner? If so bring this programme to the Burnden Park reception desk.

ROTHERHAM UNITED

HISTORY TO REPEAT FOR HUNTER?

By Tony Pullein

Norman Hunter starts his job as Rotherham United's manager in earnest here at Burnden Park this afternoon, hoping to repeat the quick success he achieved in his previous managerial post with Barnsley. After taking over at Oakwell in September 1980, he led the club to promotion to the Second Division at the end of his first season.

He left Barnsley in February 1984 to become assistant-manager of West Bromwich Albion, a post he held until taking over at Rotherham this summer.

Mr. Hunter has made several major signings and hopes the new men will quickly settle and make a bid for promotion. Goalkeeper Kel O'Hanlon was signed from Middlesbrough, defender Kevan Smith from Darlington and midfield man Daral Pugh came from Huddersfield.

But Tommy Tynan, a summer arrival from Plymouth, is the man who could hold the key to Rotherham's promotion chances. If he can maintain the scoring rate he showed with Sheffield Wednesday, Newport and Argyle, then Rotherham could well take some holding.

Last season Rotherham were for quite a while on the fringe of the promotion race but a disastrous closing spell — they lost their five matches — saw them drop into 12th place.

The Millers had a very good away record, winning at Preston (3-0), Bristol City (1-0), Doncaster (1-0), Walsall (2-0), Newport (2-0), Cambridge (2-0), Orient (1-0) and drawing at Hull (0-0), Derby (1-1), Lincoln (3-3), Millwall (0-0) and Bradford City (1-1).

Rotherham's performances were erratic, though. For instance, they crashed 0-7 at Burnley — one of the clubs eventually relegated.

Rotherham's fortunes have fluctuated a great deal in recent times.

They were relegated to the Fourth Division in 1973 because of inferior goal-average to three other clubs level on points. They reclaimed their Third Division place in 1975 and two years later they were denied one of the top three places in Division Three on goal-average.

They narrowly missed relegation again in 1978 but in 1981 they were Third Division champions. This spell of Second Division play lasted for only two seasons.

The Rotherham club was formed as Thornhill United in 1884 and took only nine years to gain election to the Second Division of the Football League.

Rotherham's first taste of League football lasted only three years for they were voted out of the competition in 1896. But they were restored to the Second Division in 1919. Four years later they were relegated to the Third Division (North) where they remained until 1951.

Rotherham suffered appalling luck before ultimately gaining promotion in 1951. In 1946/47 they totalled 64 points yet failed to win promotion! It was their misfortune to find Doncaster in such scintillating form that season and, in the days where only one club went up, Rotherham had to be satisfied with runners-up spot.

Rotherham won their opening 20 home League games that season but their hopes of achieving a 100 per cent record were smashed when they were held to 3-3 by Rochdale in the final game of the season.

The following season Rotherham scored 59 points — one short of Lincoln's tally — and in 1948/49 they finished runners-up for the third season in succession. They lost a lot of heart after that but in 1951 they achieved their reward when topping the table with 71 points.

It looked as if the Millers would go into the First Division in 1955. When the final tables were calculated

Birmingham, Luton and Rotherham all had 54 points but — in the days of two-up — they were forced into third place on goal-average.

Their long reign in Second Division football continued until 1968.

Rotherham created a piece of League Cup history long before the competition was known as the Milk Cup. The Millers, in fact, played in the very first League Cup final in 1961. In those days the final was played on a home-and-away basis and they set themselves up to collect the trophy when winning their home leg by 2-0 against Aston Villa. But Villa won the return 3-0 to take the Cup on aggregate score.

KEL O'HANLON (Goalkeeper). Kel was signed from Middlesbrough during the summer and is expected to take over from Bob Mimms, who moved on to Everton. He served his apprenticeship with Middlesbrough, earned his League debut in 1982/83 and for the past two seasons he held a regular place in their Second Division side.

ANDY BARNESLEY (Defender). Young right-back signed from Denaby United at the end of last season after promising displays in the reserves.

KEVAN SMITH (Defender). Kevan, another of Rotherham's new summer signings, was discovered by Darlington in the Stockton League. But he went straight into their League XI in 1979 and held a firm place in the side, which won promotion from the Fourth Division last summer, until making his latest move.

MIKE PICKERING (Defender). Mike, who was signed from Sheffield Wednesday in 1983, started his career with Barnsley. After making 100 League appearances for the Tykes, he was transferred to Southampton for £35,000 in 1977. But he stayed at The Dell for little more than a year before moving on to Sheffield Wednesday.

PHIL CROSBY (Defender/Midfield). Phil is a former England Youth international who grew up with Grimsby. He was introduced to their League team in 1979-80 and signed for Rotherham in 1983.

DEAN EMERSON (Midfield). Signed from Stockport County during the close season. Rotherham watched Dean's lively midfield performances with interest last season before beating other clubs in the race for his signature.

MIKE TRUSSON (Midfield). Mike grew up with Plymouth Argyle, making his League debut for them in 1977. After some 70 games for Argyle, he was transferred to Sheffield United for £70,000 in 1980 and Rotherham signed him two seasons ago.

ALAN BIRCH (Midfield). Walsall gave Alan his chance in League football in 1973 and he made well over 150 appearances for the Saddlers before joining Chesterfield for £40,000 in 1979. After leading their scoring list with 23 goals in 1980-81, he was snapped up by Wolves for £180,000 but, after only a short stay at Molineux, he was signed by Barnsley for £95,000. He returned to Chesterfield at the start of 1983-84 and linked with Rotherham shortly before the 1984 transfer deadline.

MICK GOODING (Midfield). Mick is now in his second spell with Rotherham. He initially joined them from Bishop Auckland and made his League debut for them in 1979. He was sold to Chesterfield three seasons ago but Rotherham re-signed him shortly after the start of 1983-84.

DARAL PUGH (Midfield). Daral hopes to make his first League appearance for the Millers this afternoon after joining them from Huddersfield in the close-season. He began his League career with Doncaster in 1979 and it was after winning two Wales Under-21 caps in 1981-82 that he was transferred to Huddersfield in an exchange deal.

TOMMY TYNAN (Forward). Tommy has been the scourge of Third Division defences for the past five seasons, during which time he has scored 111 goals for Newport and Plymouth. Another of Rotherham's new signings, Tommy started his career with Liverpool but entered League football whilst on loan to Swansea in 1975-76. Sheffield Wednesday signed him in 1976 and in 1977-78 he was the Owls' top scorer with 21. After a brief stay with Lincoln he was transferred to Newport in 1978. In 1980-81 he hit 19 goals for the Welsh club, then topped their list with 13 and 31 before joining Plymouth in 1983. He was Argyle's best marksman both seasons at Home Park with 16 and a personal best 32 last season.

TONY SIMMONS (Forward). Tony gained England Youth honours in his Sheffield Wednesday days and Q.P.R. signed him for £50,000 in 1983. He didn't play in Rangers' first-team but, after initially joining Rotherham on loan in 1983-84, the full transfer was completed for £50,000. He was the Millers' top scorer with 14 last term.

JOHN DUNGWORTH (Forward). John, who was signed from Mansfield two seasons ago, began his career with Huddersfield Town. Following a loan spell at Barnsley, he moved on to Oldham in 1975. He later served Rochdale on loan but it was after joining Aldershot in 1977 that he made real headway. John scored 23 goals in his first season for the Shots and in 1978-79 set up a new club record of 34 goals. He moved on to Shrewsbury in 1979 then, after a loan period with Hereford, signed for Mansfield in 1982.

CLUB NEWS

BURNDEN'S BIRTHDAY

It is exactly 90 years to the day that Burnden Park was first opened to the public, although it wasn't a football match that attracted a crowd of 20000 on it's 'first day'.

The Bolton Wanderers ninth annual athletic festival was the attraction that opened the ground for the first time on August 17th 1895. Admission was 6d and 1 shilling with the stands extra, prizes to the value of £230, a hefty sum in those days were offered. The crowd didn't come just to see the athletics, it was a real family affair with high divers, donkeys riding cycles, high wire artists and the high stilt walker challenging anyone to a race on one lap around the track.

The day commenced at 2.30 and the somewhat incomplete entrances could not cope with the crowds nor the crush of having the first chance of gaining access to the ground due to local immense interest in the Wanderers move from Pikes Lane.

The first event was a bicycle mile handicap on the track that measured ¼ of a mile to one lap, and was banked up six feet at the bends. The two stands were almost full with the Darcy Lever (Burnden) seating 2000 with standing room for a further 3000. It was under that stand that the two dressing rooms and referees retirement room was situated whilst on the Manchester Road side of the ground an uncovered stand gave room for 5000. The Great Lever End was the most cramped part of the enclosure whilst the Railway embankment had still to be terraced.

The receipts from the first opening were £453 whilst the festival continued the following Monday and attracted 15000. Bolton Harriers held their sixth annual sports festival at Burnden on August 31st but it wasn't until September 11th 1895 that the first football match took place at the ground.

Preston North End were the visitors for the benefit of Wanderers Welsh International full back David (Di) Jones who had been the captain for the previous six years. North End weren't the attraction they had been seven years earlier but a crowd of 3000 saw them win 1-0 with a goal from Smith as darkness fell.

Three days later Everton came to Burnden for the first League game here, it was fitting that the Wanderers had been the visitors to Everton for the opening of Goodison in 1892. A crowd of 15000 paid £372 to see a cycle race an hour before the 4.00 kick off which resulted in Bolton winning 3-1.

JUNIOR WHITES

For the opening game of the season today's mascot is Martin Lewarne who is a new member of the Junior Whites. Martin is 9 years old and lives on Kinroff Drive, Ladybridge. He attends Ladybridge County Primary School and enjoys playing football.

Any new members are welcome to attend the first meeting of the season which takes place in the executive club on Monday 9th September at 6.30pm.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS

Rotherham United visit Burnden Park today for what will be the 21st Football League meeting between the two sides, with the Yorkshiremen having the advantage to date having 8 victories to the Wanderers 5.

Our paths first crossed in the League at Second Division level in season 1964/65, when the Wanderers won 2-0 at Burnden with goals from Gordon Taylor and Francis Lee, whilst the game at Millmoor produced the only scoreless result between the sides to date.

In season 1966/67 we faced each other twice in the space of a week in the opening stages of the season. The first match took place at Burnden on August 24th and the Wanderers were without new signing John Byrom who had been injured in pre season training.

Les Chappell opened the scoring for United after a quarter of an hour when he slammed a shot past Eddie Hopkinson from the edge of the penalty area. Within two minutes Bolton were level, Freddie Hill beating three defenders before shooting into the roof of the net from 20 yards.

Bolton took the lead in the 29th minute with Wyn Davies on the mark after a John Napier blocked shot had created a scramble in the goalmouth. It was Rotherham's turn to respond within two minutes, John Galley lashing home from an acute angle, and at 2-2 that was the end of the scoring for the evening but not the action.

The game erupted in the 71st minute when the referee awarded Rotherham a penalty, adjudging that United inside right Bob Williams had been impeded on his route to goal by Wanderers captain Warwick Rimmer. Bolton full back Syd Farrimond told the referee what he thought of his decision in no uncertain terms and was promptly given his marching orders to become the first Wanderer to be sent off at Burnden since the war.

As Farrimond made his way around the track to the dressing rooms Barry Lyons stepped up to take the kick and blasted it over the bar. The following ten minutes were full of petty fouls with United's Wilcockson being booked for a bad foul on Gordon Taylor, but it was the referee who received the brunt of the crowds displeasure at the end of the game.

The attendance of 14214 saw the John Byrom — newly signed but missed start of 1966-67 season.

Bolton: Hopkinson, Cooper, Farrimond, Rimmer, Napier, Hatton, Lee, Bromley, Davies, Hill, Taylor. Sub: Butler.

Rotherham: Jones, Wilcockson, Clish, Rabjohn, Haselden, Tiler, Lyons, Williams, Galley, Casper, Chappell. Sub: Harrity.

The return at Millmoor six days later saw the Wanderers register their only victory there to date. John Byrom came into the side for his Bolton debut replacing Francis Lee and Roy Greaves took over from Brian Bromley who was injured.

After a scoreless first half it was almost one way traffic in the second with Rotherham having all the territorial advantage and the Wanderers defence stretched to the limit. As the game entered the final minute with the crowd of 11567 expecting a draw, Warwick Rimmer sent Wyn Davies clear down the right, and after brushing off a Brian Tiler challenge his cross found Gordon Taylor who sweetly headed home past Jones to stun the home supporters.

The result put Bolton, who were still unbeaten, into second place in Division Two, one point behind Birmingham City who had a 100% record.

Last season the honours ended all square with both sides winning their home games. In September at Millmoor it took United only three minutes to open their account, Mick Gooding slipping the ball past Simon Farnworth from 10 yards, for their first League goal of the season in what was their fourth game. John Dungworth grabbed United's second after 59 minutes and although George Oghani kept Bolton's hopes alive with his first League goal, it was Dungworth who put the issue beyond doubt with six minutes left to give United a 3-1 win.

Last January here at Burnden the Wanderers ran out 2-0 winners thanks to some fine goalkeeping from Simon Farnworth and two goals from Tony Caldwell. The first was the club's 3000th Football League goal on Burnden Park, a spectacular header setting the Wanderers up for victory.

Our League record against Rotherham is as follows:

	PL	W	D	L	F	A
HOME	10	4	3	3	15	13
AWAY	10	1	4	5	7	14
TOTAL	20	5	7	8	22	27

Down memory lane

15 YEARS AGO

The Wanderers returned undefeated from a three match tour of Germany. After opening with a scoreless draw against Bayreuth, they defeated Celle 2-0 and Osnabruck 2-1.

The final friendly in the build up to the forthcoming season took place at Newcastle United where the Wanderers went down to three second half goals from Tommy Gibb, Bob Moncur and Alan Foggon.

In the final week before the League season the Wanderers appointed Jimmy McIlroy as chief coach, but 2 days before the big kick off, they found themselves with a goalkeeping problem. First choice keeper Alan Boswell along with understudy Peter Clarke were injured, whilst Eddie Hopkinson, who had retired, was not registered. This left 15 years old Barry Siddall as the only fit keeper. Luckily Peter Clarke managed to shake off his injury and made his League debut whilst Siddall's chance would come later.

15th August 1970. Bolton entertained newly promoted Luton Town for their first second division fixture of the season. Terry Wharton started off in style by grabbing a hat trick, two from the penalty spot, in a 4-2 win. Roy Greaves was the other Bolton scorer whilst Luton's goals came from Mike Keen and a last minute Malcolm MacDonald penalty.

10 YEARS AGO

The Wanderers again visited the continent for three games, defeating German second division sides Herne and Homburg 2-0 and 3-2 respectively, but crashing 4-0 at Dutch first division side Breda.

Bolton completed their pre-season warm ups with a 2-1 home win over Chesterfield, a 2-0 win at Rotherham and a 1-1 draw at Wolves.

15th August 1975. Bolton went down to a 1-0 defeat at Bristol City, but it took a twice taken penalty to beat keeper Barry Siddall, who made a string of fine saves. City were awarded their 63rd minute penalty when Paul Jones brought down Jimmy Mann. Gerry Sweeney's spot kick was well saved by Siddall but the referee ruled he had moved too soon and Sweeney made no mistake with his second attempt.

5 YEARS AGO

Bolton commenced their pre-season games with a scoreless draw at Darlington before travelling to Holland where they defeated Haarlem 1-0 and Sparta Rotterdam 2-1. Their final warm up game ended in a 2-0 defeat at the hands of Polish side Legia Warsaw at Burnden. Tad Nowak returned to the side and was made captain for the day against his former team mates.

16th August 1980. Back in division two after a two season spell in the top flight saw the Wanderers visit Notts County. Unfortunately they found themselves two goals down after only 15 minutes from Trevor Christie and Paul Hooks. Neil Whatmore pulled a goal back just before the interval but Bolton couldn't find an equaliser despite having much of the play in the second half.

PRE-SEASON MIXED FORTUNES

The Wanderers pre season games produced a mixed bag of results although only one defeat was sustained, with the trip to Northern Ireland cancelled due to the UEFA ban four games were played against Multipart League (previously Northern Premier) sides.

A scoreless draw at Chorley saw Wanderers' debuts for Derek Scott, Dave Sutton, David Cross and Asa Hartford with fullback Tom McIntyre who has since returned to Aberdeen also getting his first game.

Tony Caldwell grabbed Bolton's first goal of the season the following evening when he converted a penalty at Macclesfield Town, Caldwell also netted the winner 15 minutes from time to give Bolton a 2-1 win. Young keeper Kevin Mailey made his first team debut, coming on in the second half and keeping a clean sheet in the process.

Former Football League side Workington were the next opponents and although the scoresheet was blank both teams produced an entertaining evening's football. Workington included in their side former Wanderer Eric Snookes whilst Sam Allardyce made his presence known on his return with a typical rocket header hitting the bar.

There was no lack of goals the following evening when the Wanderers defeated Southport 5-2 at Haig Avenue. The non leaguers gave as good as they got in the first half but were outplayed in the second period with the Bolton defence tightening up and building on their 3-2 half time lead. George Oghani was the hero of the game scoring four goals with Tony Caldwell netting the other. Trialist keeper John Tanner, who was playing non league football last season, was given his opportunity in the second half but had little to do.

The Isle of Man sponsored Lancashire Cup saw the Wanderers defeat Rochdale 2-0 and Bury 1-0 at Burnden, before crashing 0-4 at Burnley to end their interest in the competition. Although failing to reach the final it was Bolton's best performance in the competition in terms of victories since its reintroduction in 1982. The Previous nine games had seen only one Bolton victory which came a year ago at Bury.

GUEST SPOT

Sam Allardyce Sits This One Out

I CAN'T tell you how frustrated I feel at not being able to kick off the 1985-86 season with the rest of the lads. Sadly, I've got to sit this one out because of a two match suspension carried over from the end of last season.

When I signed for the Wanderers last month I had no idea that I had acquired 31 penalty points in my season at Huddersfield and news of the ban came as a shock to me.

It just means that instead of being out on the park with the lads I'll be sitting in the stands shouting them on.

What I can tell you all as we welcome you back to Burnden Park for the start of a new season is that the playing staff here at the club are all very optimistic about our chances.

I happen to feel that we have a good squad of players together and although our defeat at Burnley last week posed one or two problems, we think that we have ironed them out this week in time for our opening League game, and that really is what counts.

I'm one of those players who doesn't hold too much store by results of pre-season games. All that really matters is that you build up your fitness and understanding of one another on the field.

Even when things have gone well, results-wise, in pre-season games I have never really got too optimistic — nor have I ever been unduly worried when results have gone badly.

I remember the year we eventually won the Second Division Championship here at Bolton (1978 wasn't it?) we didn't win a game on tour in Germany and hardly won any of our pre-season friendlies. Yet we went to Burnley on the opening day of the season, won 1-0 and only lost once in 17 games!

Since I've been here before and feel I know the fans very well indeed, I would like, on your behalf, to welcome the other new signings to Burnden Park.

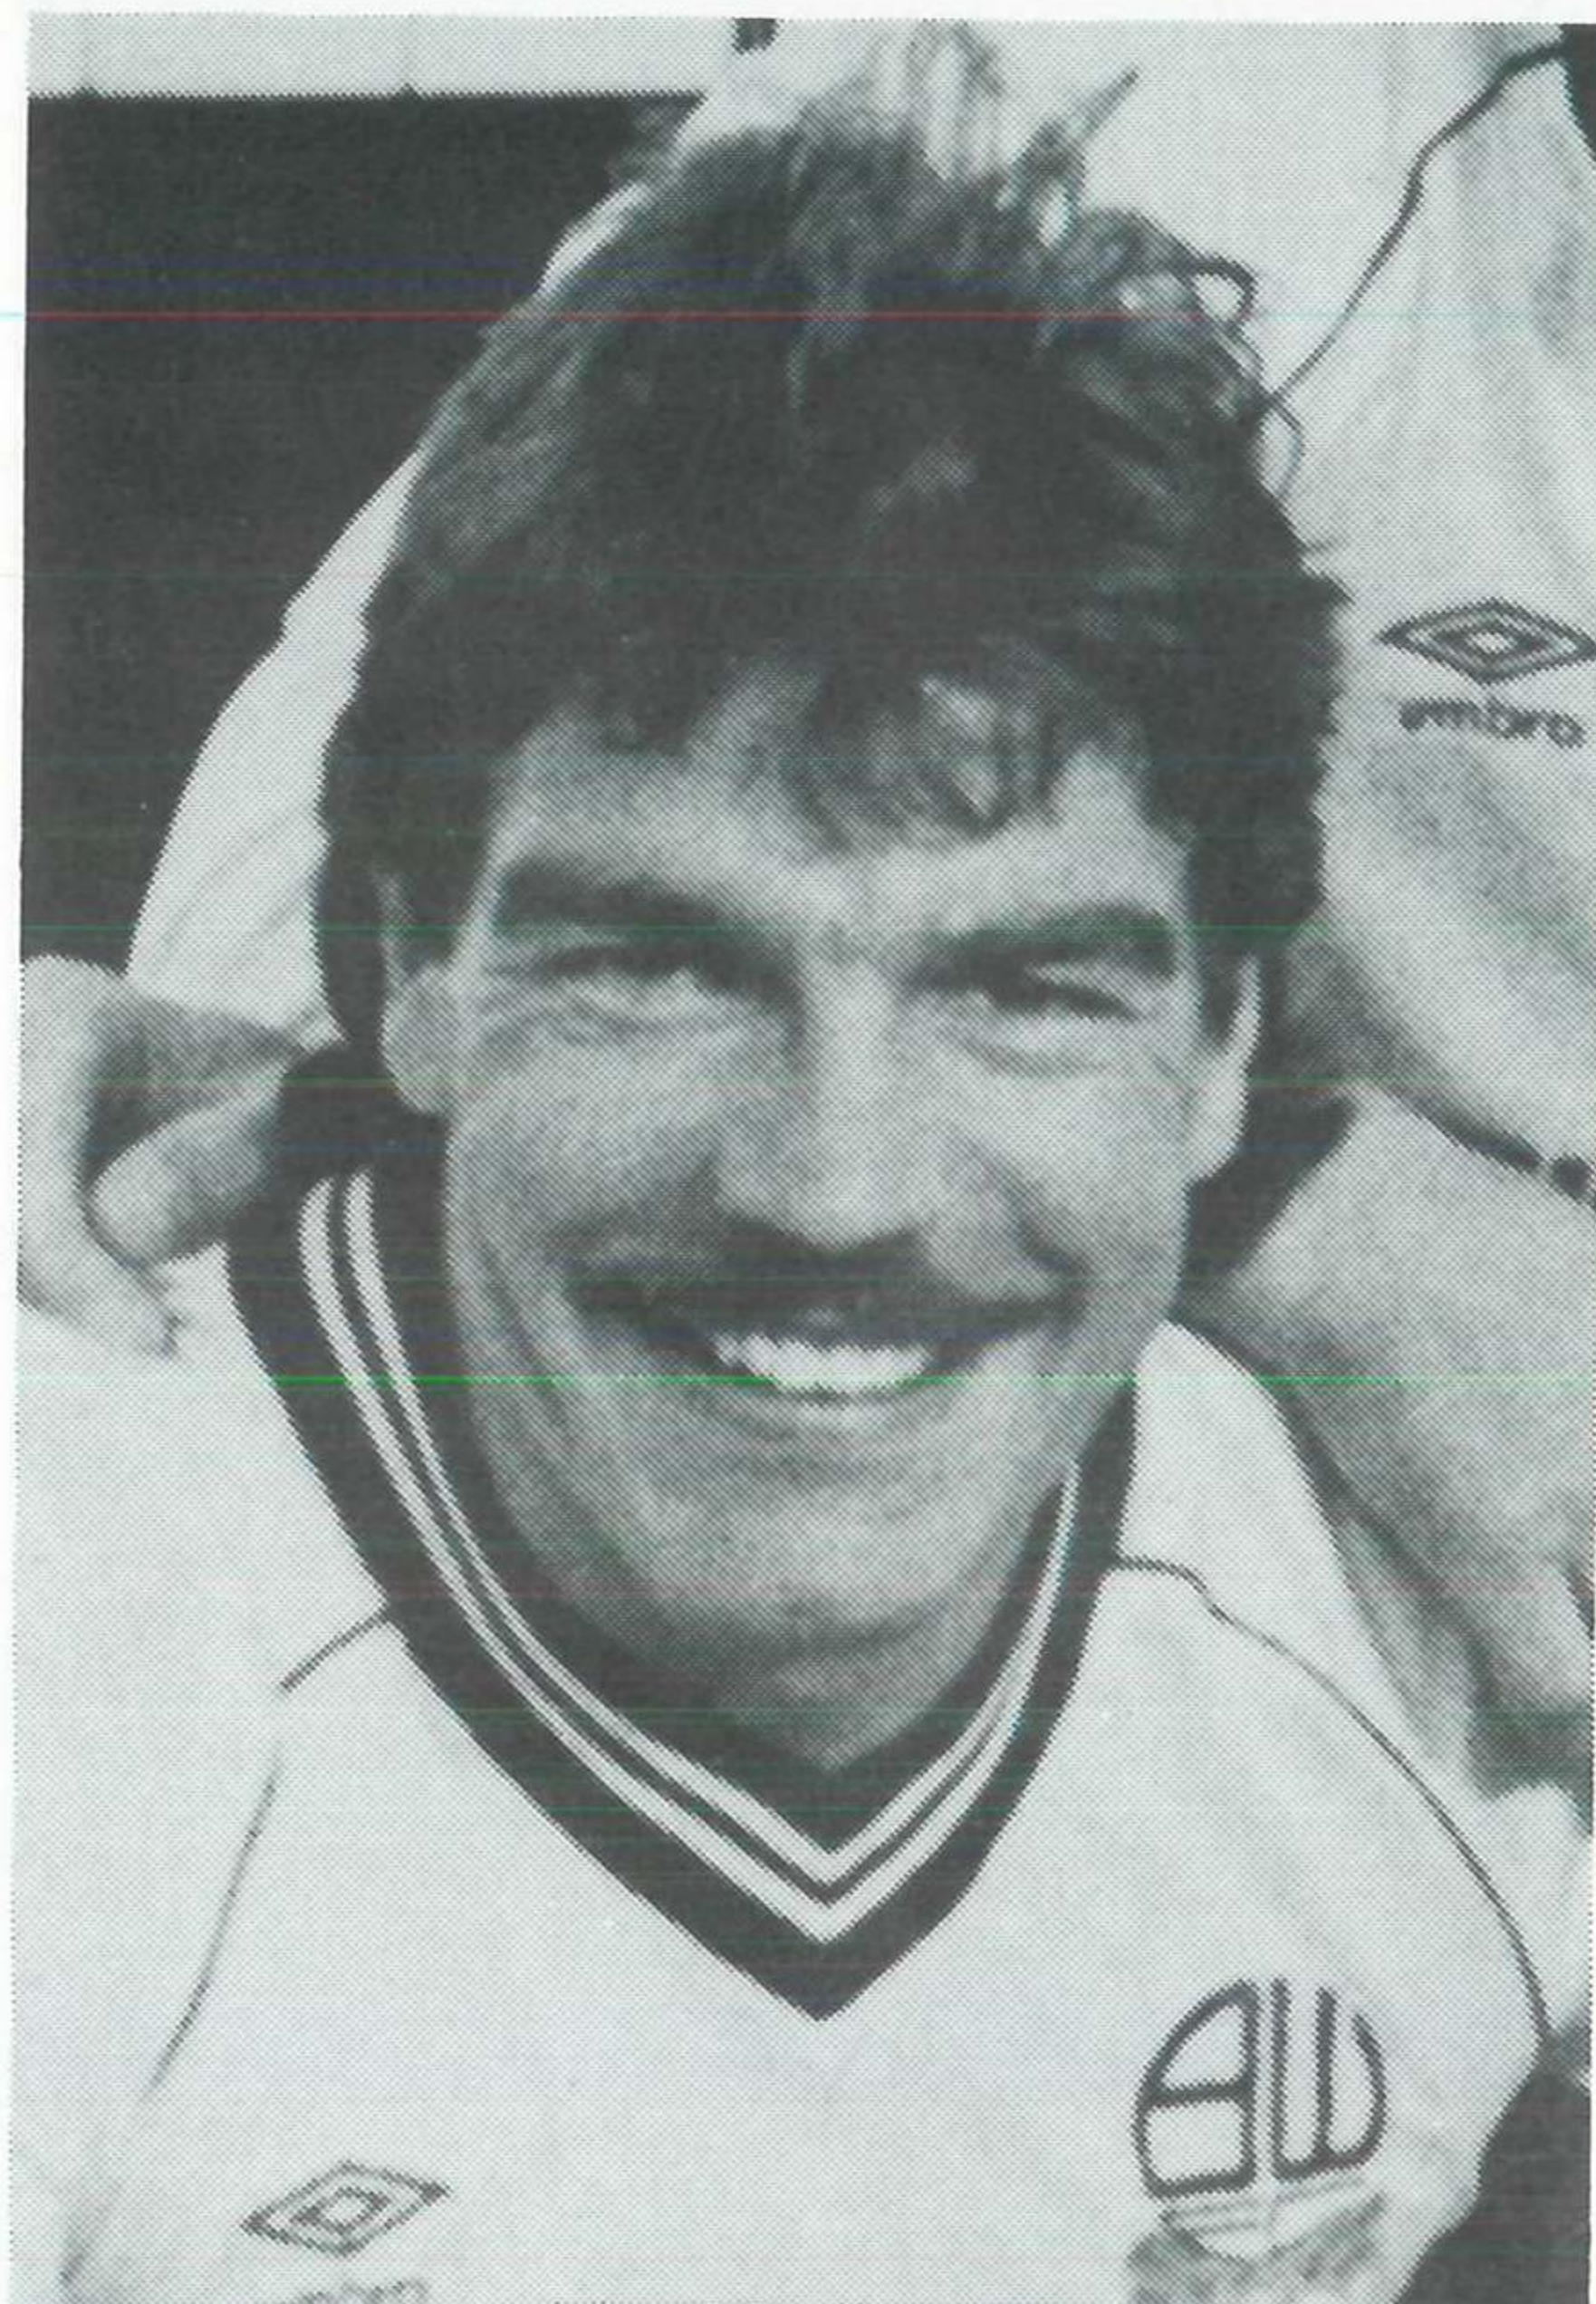

Derek Scott, Dave Sutton, David Cross and Asa Hartford will all get a warm and generous reception from you all I'm sure.

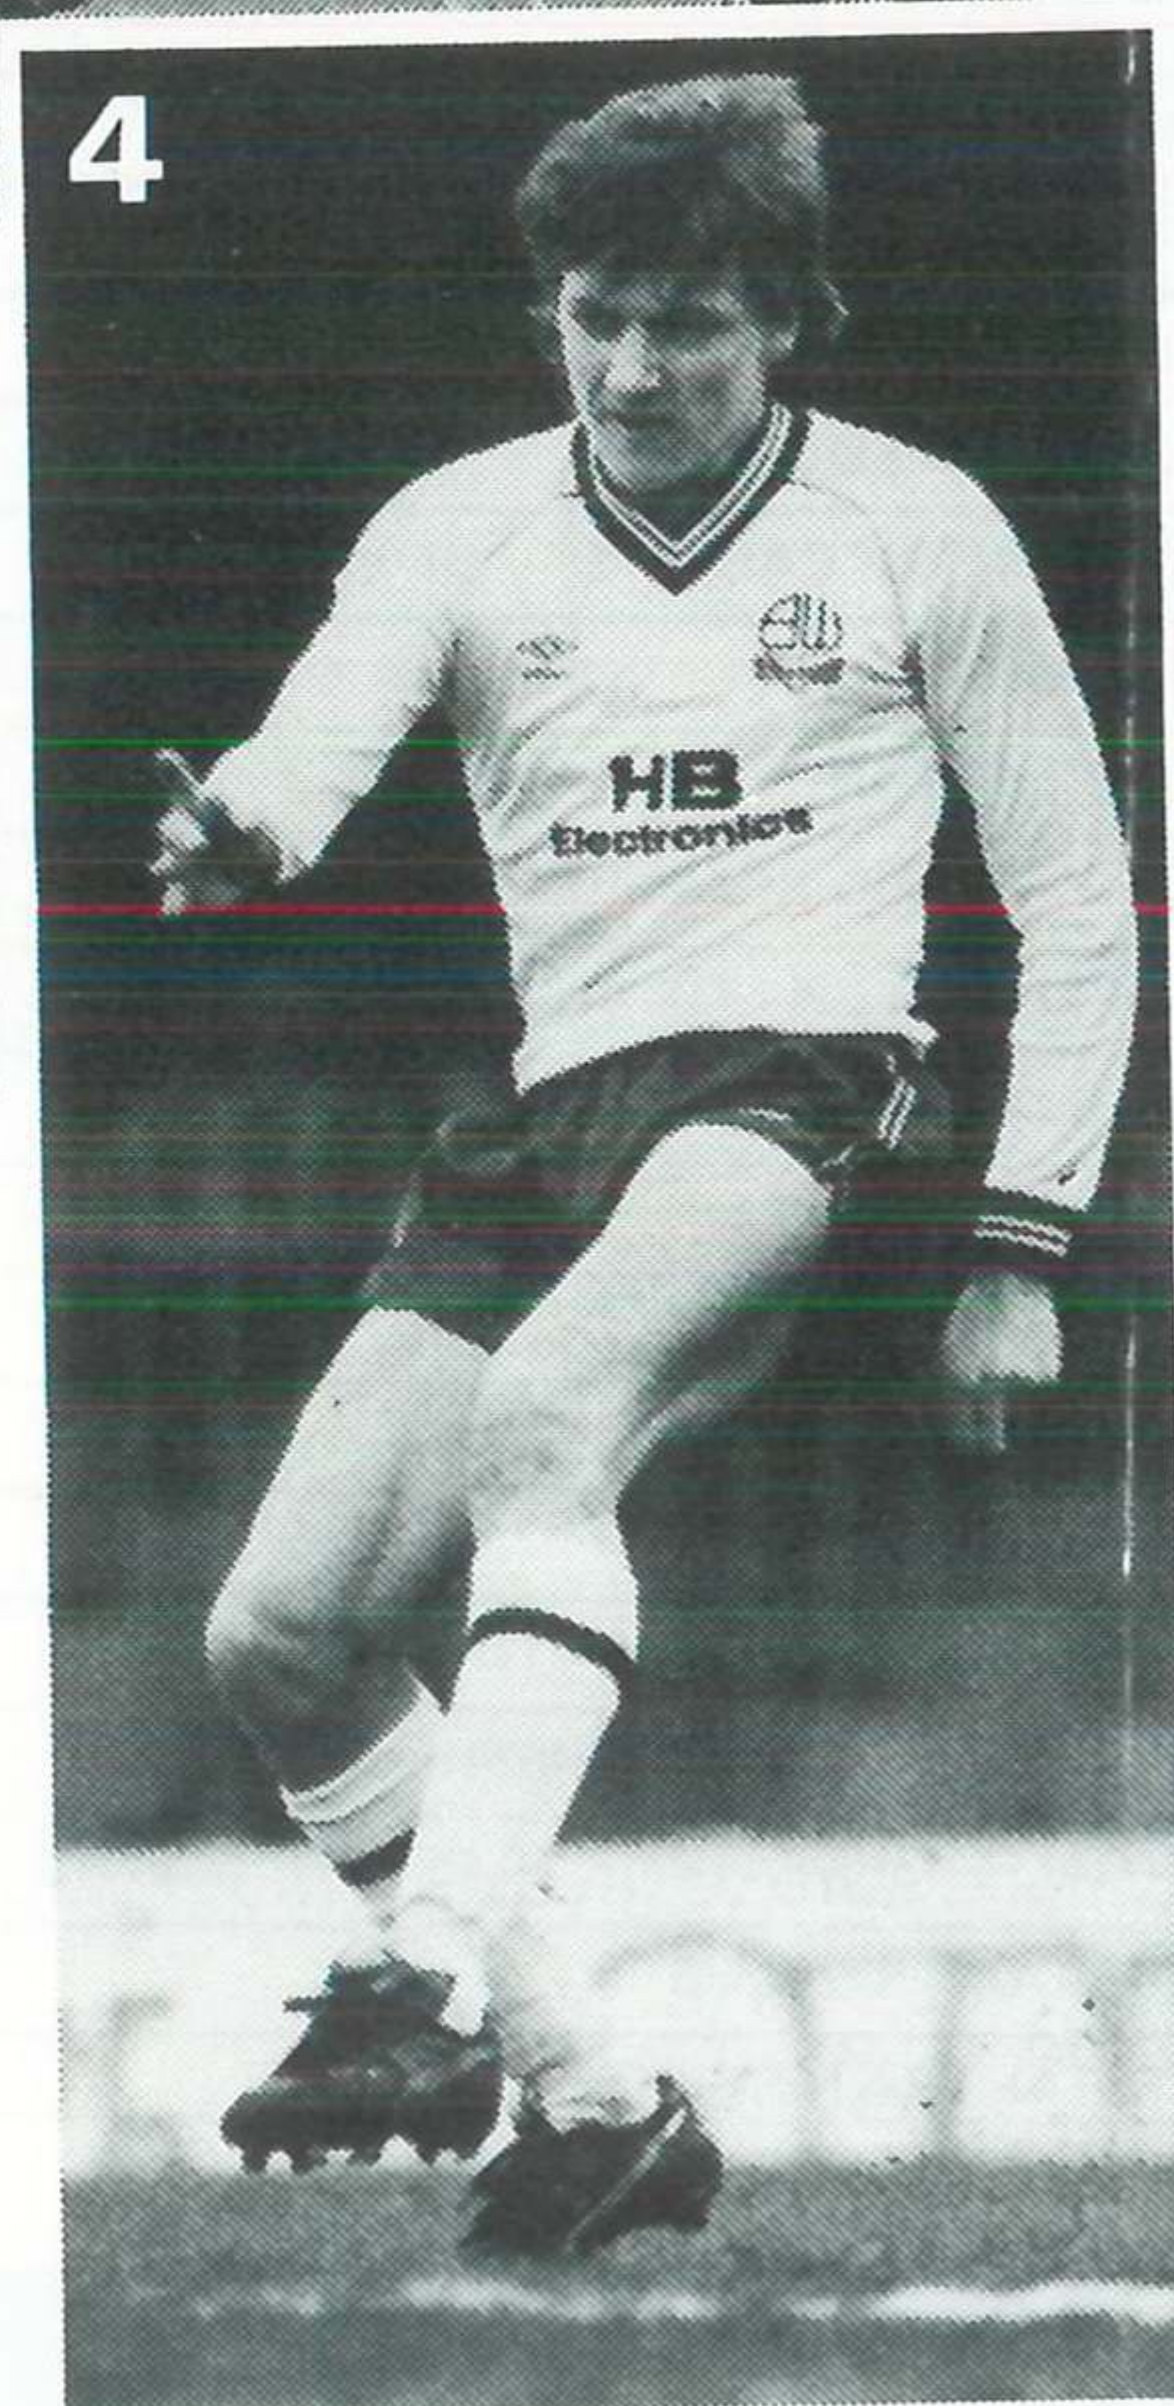

I've come to Bolton to try to do well for the club and I'm certain they have the same object in mind. In my opinion things are looking up — both on the playing side and off the field as well. Optimistic signs on the store development suggest the club's financial problems may soon be sorted out. They have been a stone around the neck of Bolton Wanderers for long enough.

On a personal note I think you probably all know that I already had my home in Bolton before I returned to the club. But for those who don't know too much about me, I'm a family man. Lynne and I have two children, Craig (10) and Rachel (6).

As for today's game, Rotherham are sure to give us a tough, but entertaining afternoon.

Norman Hunter has recently taken charge there and will be doing all he can to lick them into shape after having been promotion contenders for much of last season.

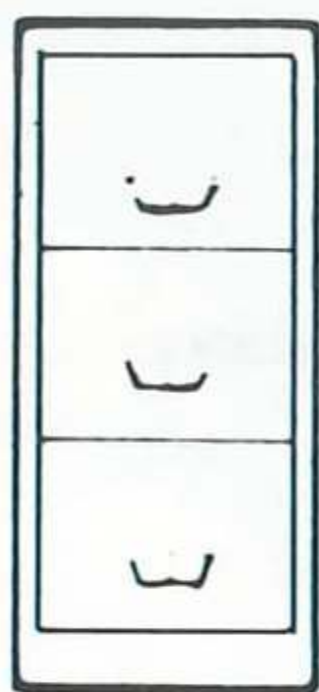

ACTION

1. George Oghani turns the ball past the Rochdale 'keeper on his way to scoring Wanderers first goal.
2. Sam Allardyce climbs high in an aerial clash with Rochdale's Joe Cooke.
3. Asa Hartford goes close with a diving header against Bury.
4. Jimmy Phillips in action.
